Start date for discount/exemption

A person is disregarded for council tax discount purposes if he or she has a relevant association, within the meaning of the Visiting Forces Act 1952, with a visiting force from one of the countries to which the Act applies.

A person has an association if he or she is:

a) a member of that force, or

b) a dependant of a member, provided that the dependant is not a British citizen or is not ordinarily resident in the UK.

If one of the persons who would be liable to pay the council tax is a person associated with the visiting force the property will be exempt from the council tax.

- 1) Please tick to confirm that you are enclosing proof of the terms of your residency here in the U.K.
