A person is disregarded for council tax discount purposes if he or she has his or her main residence in a residential care home, nursing home, mental nursing home or hostel in England and Wales and he or she is receiving care or treatment (or both) in the home or hostel

A person could be considered as having their sole or main residence in the home or hostel if they are in the home or hostel on a long term basis and are unlikely to return to their own home..

If all the residents have their sole or main residence in a home or hostel then their property will be exempt from Council Tax.

1) Please confirm how many adults are resident in the property? _____
