TRANSFORMATION AND IMPROVEMENT OVERVIEW AND SCRUTINY COMMITTEE

9 JUNE 2025

ONE PUBLIC QUESTION RECEIVED

John Palmer

Have all the committee diligently studied the PwC contract, and been fully briefed by officers? Leader Heather Kidd stated in a 22 May Newsroom story that the new Administration would "stop using expensive consultants". Is the scrutiny committee going to discuss and analyse if PwC have so far failed, by being unable to reveal anticipated tangible cost savings from its long-running renegotiation of the 27-year Waste PFI contract with Veolia, running until 2034?
