St Giles CofE Primary School 18 and 19 October 2023 Good

Pupils have an excellent understanding and appreciation of diversity in the local community and beyond. Pupils know and accept there are different types of relationships. They gain a very wide experience of different faiths and extensive experiences of trips and visitors to the school. Pupils meet authors from a wide variety of backgrounds to inspire them to be writers. Educational visits, such as visiting Carding Mill valley, or workshops on stone age man, bring the curriculum to life. Pupils can perform dramas in French and as part of their religious education studies.

St Mary's Bluecoat CofE (VA) Primary School 14 and 15 November 2023 Good

The curriculum helps pupils to learn about different cultures and religions within their own local community and the wider world. In this way, pupils develop a deep understanding of respect and equality.

As this is a Voluntary aided school no detailed comments can be made in RE as this is covered in the Section 48 inspection by the Church of England.

The Marches School 26 and 27 September 2023 Good
