

Sir,

Looking at the proposed plan, it is apparent that no considerations should be given to the approval of such a submission until the mistakes left behind are addressed.

This plan is looking at sustainability and development. The actions of Shropshire Council have left behind unfinished housing sites and misery in some areas. This should be addressed before any further mistakes and misery occurs.

Regards

John Simpson