A significant number of new houses have been built near PKH002 area, with the former piggeries site and land off Artillery Road in the past 24 months. Objections were raised to the building of those by specifying that SAMDEV and Oswestry Local Plan needs and community cluster guidelines have already been met before these sites were developed. Those plans acknowledged that there was insufficient infrastructure to support those sites with increased traffic and unsafe roads. The Council's learning and skills team advised that the above sites would likely cause capacity pressures at the local primary school. There are no shops or other facilities in Park Hall. Planning permission for 6 further houses on land adjacent to North Drive was rejected on the basis the "6" would significantly exceed Shropshire Council's housing guidelines and that the land was classed as open countryside for planning policy purposes. The Parish Council at the time of the rejection said "members of the parish council are totally against any further building in Park Hall, other than what has already been approved. The infrastructure, amenities and traffic situation will not accommodate any further building within the area."
