

Regarding planning for building in Trefonen, surely the extra traffic generated would impact on the bottle neck getting into town passed the Catholic school and Oswestry School. I understand planning permission was recently refused on a plot near to the school due to the congestion it would cause.

Lynne and Graham Jackson